

Modern slavery and human trafficking statement

Last updated 10.05.23

This statement is published in line with section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

I confirm that neither I (Matt Willatt, Director), my employees, workers or organisation have been convicted of any offence involving slavery and human trafficking nor have been the subject of any investigation or enforcement proceedings regarding any such offence or alleged offence. When use sub-contractors we agree to use our best endeavours to obtain the same confirmation from them and to ensure that our supply chains are slavery and human trafficking free.

Our commitment to the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015

- We are committed to the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and the abolition of modern slavery and human trafficking.
- We, as an equal opportunities employer, are committed to creating and ensuring a non-discriminatory and respectful working environment for our staff.
- Our employment processes are designed to ensure that all prospective employees are legally entitled to work in the UK and safeguard them from any abuse or coercion.
- We do not enter into business with any organisation, which knowingly supports or is found to be involved in slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour.
- All employees will need to be aware of and follow the Gov.uk procurement guidelines: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/procurement-policy-note-0519-tackling-modern-slavery-in-government-supply-chains>
- All new employees will be required to undertake the following training: <https://theskillscentre.co.uk/courses-services/eskills/business-compliance-courses/modern-slavery-training>
